

OPRA Projects recognises its moral and legal responsibilities under the Fair Work Act and WA Industrial Relations Act to provide a safe and healthy work environment.

This commitment means we will;

- Provide a safe and healthy workplace and working conditions for all, including employees, contractors and visitors
- Provide training to enable all employees to work safely
- Comply with all relevant legislation and industry standards
- Provide support and assistance to employees
- Consult with staff and contractors where relevant to enhance the effectiveness of procedures
- Provide adequate resources to aid employees in fulfilling their responsibilities to conduct investigation into all reported incidents
- Ensure that appropriate return to work programs are in place
- Conduct regular reviews and evaluations of health and safety systems in place.

While at work and on site, we expect all workers; employees, contractors or visitors to;

- Take reasonable care to ensure good health and safety procedures are implemented at all times
- Identify and support measures to eliminate or minimise unsafe conditions and
- Assume personal responsibility for their own safety and for those of other work colleagues by always operating in a safe and appropriate manner.

OPRA Projects promotes a proactive health and safety management culture based on effective communication and consultation, the systematic identification, assessment and control of hazards and the encouragement of innovation to eliminate or reduce WHS risk. Through this process we target an ongoing reduction in LTIFR and improvement in safety reporting of near miss and dangerous occurrences.

As a specialist contractor OPRA Projects recognises its responsibility to provide employees, workers and contractors with positive role models and appropriate health and safety knowledge for application during and beyond their construction industry life.
